LE SALUT COMME DIALOGUE COURAU THIERRY-

MARIE.2024-04-05T00:00:00+02:00 C'est dans la vie quotidienne que se réalise le salut des hommes. Et c'est la réalité de nos existences que Dieu vient chaque jour visiter. Depuis l'origine du monde, Dieu veut entrer en dialogue avec chaque homme et chaque femme. C'est sur ce dialogue que le pape Paul VI revient de manière décisive dans sa première encyclique Ecclesiam suam de 1964. Dieu intervient dans l'histoire des hommes pour les rendre capables de dialogue avec lui et entre eux. Le pape François, qui vient de canoniser Paul VI, insiste lui aussi sur le dialogue d'amour comme expérience du salut. Au cœur de ce dialogue, chacun est écouté, reçu, et se découvre aimé. C'est ce que Dieu offre à l'homme, gratuitement. C'est ce qui le rend libre.

Dominicain, professeur et doyen honoraire de la Faculté de Théologie de l'Institut catholique de Paris, président de la Revue internationale de Théologie - Concilium, Thierry-Marie Courau est aussi l'auteur, au Cerf, d'une nouvelle sur le dialogue entre bouddhisme et christianisme : Les fontaines de l'Éveil, 2016.

Comment concilier la conviction fondamentale de la foi chrétienne, qui affirme que Dieu se révèle définitivement en Jésus-Christ vrai Dieu et vrai homme pour le salut de tous, avec la reconnaissance de la valeur positive des autres religions du monde ? Pourquoi l'évènement Jésus-Christ, situé dans l'espace et le temps, a-t-il une portée universelle et transhistorique ? Peut-on affirmer sans ambages que le processus du salut s'effectue de manière indépendante et sans ambiguïté dans les autres religions ? Comment respecter les expériences « salvifiques » non-chrétiennes dans ce qu'elles ont de spécifiques face aux affirmations de la foi chrétienne ? Dans cette étude, il s'agit en effet, dans un premier temps, d'évaluer théologiquement la spécificité de la foi chrétienne dans l'autorévélation de Dieu en Jésus de Nazareth face et en relation avec la pluralité des religions du monde à partir des perspectives de trois théologiens francophones. Et dans un deuxième temps, de fournir un instrument conceptuel adéquat permettant d'appréhender la diversité, de gérer et de neutraliser la variété en vue d'un dialogue vrai et efficace entre les religions, et par extension, entre le Catholicisme et la religion Vodou en Haïti. D'où le sens du concept « théologie des frontières » développé par l'auteur.

Reforming the Church Declan Marmion, Salvador

Ryan.2023-10-15 Some are calling the synod on synodality “the greatest consultation effort in human history” and for good reason. It is no small task to listen to the world’s 1.36 billion Catholics, especially when many Catholics have felt marginalized or unwelcome. Taking a cue from this ongoing synodal process, the experts gathered for Reforming the Church: Global Perspectives place the broader issues relating to church reform in their historical context, while exploring themes that have ongoing relevance to the universal church. Topics include ecclesial transfiguration and the episcopacy, clerical sex abuse, globalization of the church, and the theology of synodality. A number of chapters address issues of more local, or culturally-specific, significance, in this way mirroring the results of synodal consultations conducted worldwide. What emerges is a reflection

The Transformation of the Christian Churches in Western Europe Leo Kenis, Patrick Pasture. 2010 KADOC Studies on Religion, Culture and Society, Volume 6 Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public, cultural, and social spheres in Western Europe. Even on the individual level, institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized. New forms of religious life and community, however, may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe. This book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II. In English and French.

Disputation Literature in the Near East and Beyond Enrique Jiménez, Catherine Mittermayer. 2020-08-10 Disputation literature is a type of text in which usually two non-human entities (such as trees, animals, drinks, or seasons) try to establish their superiority over each other by means of a series of speeches written in an elaborate, flowery register. As opposed to other dialogue literature, in disputation texts there is no serious matter at stake only the preeminence of one of the litigants over its rival. These light-hearted texts are known in virtually every culture that flourished in the Middle East from Antiquity to the present day, and they constitute one of the most enduring genres in world literature. The present volume collects over twenty contributions on disputation literature by a diverse group of world-renowned scholars. From ancient Sumer to modern-day Bahrain, from Egyptian to Neo-Aramaic, including Latin, French, Middle English, Armenian, Chinese and Japanese, the chapters of this book study the multiple avatars of this venerable text type.

friar and an eleventh-century Afghani Sufi master. This book explores the profound spiritual encounter between Serge de Beurecueil (1917–2005), a twentieth-century French Dominican friar and Christian mystic, and the eleventh-century Sufi master Khwaja Abdullh An'ar of Herat (1006–1089). De Beurecueil lived much of his Christian discipleship in Cairo and Afghanistan, where he became the foremost expert on the life and thought of An'ar. His mystical conversation and scholarly engagement with An'ar, his experience of Islamic hospitality, and the transformation of his own practical spirituality or praxis mystica through his experience of dwelling in the abode of Islam provide us with not only a magnificent and luminous meditation on the hidden and abiding presence of God among Muslims but also a contemplation on the quandary of genuine engagement with and openness to the religious other. To place a French Dominican friar who died in 2005 and a Sufi who died in 1089 in juxtaposition in the same book is not the most obvious path in comparative religious scholarship. Yet Dallh has not only done precisely that, but he has also produced a brilliant monograph in the process which makes for a fascinating read. Dallh's work exhibits painstaking scholarship which illuminates two notable figures in Christianity and Islam respectively and makes an original contribution to the study of these two great faith traditions. Théorie de la communication et éthique relationnelle (Collection forme et sens) FOURNOUT Olivier.2012-06-01 Théorie de la communication et éthique relationnelle montre, à travers des études de cas, que les discours sur la communication sont marqués d'une structure relationnelle qui prend son origine dans la perception de l'espace, dans le langage, dans l'esprit, mais aussi dans les formes graphiques et mises en page textuelles en circulation dans la société. Cet ouvrage met cette matrice relationnelle à l'épreuve, notamment, de la pensée systémique, de la complexité en science, du dialogisme en littérature, du traitement journalistique des conflits, de l'éthique managériale, des méthodes d'apprentissage de la communication, de campagnes de publicité, d'œuvres d'artistes, de scénographies, de communications par internet.

Atonement and Comparative Theology Catherine

Cornille.2021-09-07 The central Christian belief in salvation through the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ remains one of the most intractable mysteries of Christian faith. Throughout history, it has given rise to various theories of atonement, many of which have been subject to critique as they no longer speak to contemporary notions of evil and sin or to current conceptions of justice. One of the important challenges for contemporary Christian theology thus involves exploring new ways of understanding the salvific meaning of the cross. In Atonement and Comparative Theology, Christian theologians with expertise in Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Daoism, and African Religions reflect on how engagement with these traditions sheds new light on the Christian understanding of atonement by pointing to analogous structures of sin and salvation, drawing attention to the scandal of the cross as seen by the religious other, and re-interpreting aspects of the Christian understanding of atonement. Together, they illustrate the possibilities for comparative theology to deepen and enrich Christian theological reflection.

Traversing the fields of literature, theatre, painting, architecture and photography, and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality, it investigates the 'impure', intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema. Filmmakers under discussion include critics-turned-directors Francois Truffaut, Eric Rohmer, Jean-Luc Godard, Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol, members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais, Agnes Varda and Chris Marker, but also lesser-known directors, notably the 'secret child of the New Wave', Guy Gilles. This wide-ranging book offers an original reading of the complex, often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice. Key Features: A wide-ranging study which explores the complex, often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice. Au risque de la conversion Catherine Foisy.2018-02-02 In this ambitious and pioneering work, Catherine Foisy puts the experiences of Quebec missionaries into perspective, describing the ways in which they interweave with the socio-ecclesiastical transformations peculiar to Quebec and with those of Catholicism in mission countries. This tapestry, extending to the four corners of the world, gives the reader a view of missionary work as a site of intercultural encounter and conversion, as revealed through the voices of its actors. These accounts offer an opportunity to gauge the extent to which twentieth-century missionary work provided fertile ground for the emergence, deployment, and transfer of socio-ecclesiastical innovations that would prove decisive for the future of global Christianity. On the strength of its multidisciplinary approach and transnational analysis, this book documents various aspects of the Quebec missionary experience as it successively prospered, reached a zenith, and went into decline. By revisiting Lionel Groulx's 1962 work on the Quebec missionary experience from the standpoint of those who actually took part in it, this book gives readers a new vantage on a whole area of Quebec history even as it sheds light on a rich religious heritage, both tangible and intangible. Finally, this book is an opportunity for readers to reacquaint themselves with certain characteristics of societies within larger societies that enable them to foster the emergence of intercultural encounters

Can We Zoom into God? Andrew Hemingway.2023-10-19 When Zoom worship emerged in Britain during the COVID lockdown of 2020, Christians quickly turned to an art form, a form of theater, to deliver their worship. It was a quest for immanence, the very thing the Reformation dealt with by the elevation of transcendence. What an intriguing thought: Could John Calvin with his dictum regarding piety have practiced Zoom worship? Served as he was with the principle that the finite cannot contain the infinite, we must admit it looks very unlikely! At least in this Calvin saw eye-to-eye with Erasmus, but what of Luther? He may have been a comfortable Zoom worshiper, with his views that “Religious artworks are neither here nor there” and “We may have them or not as we please.” Little did the church realize that it would be a step back into the past, because “what you permit you promote.” The desire to use images was much more sinister than in Medieval times, as these were now images of ourselves! Regardless of the age, the image reigns supreme. What had caused the demise? Was it bereavement? It could not be bereavement of God; rather, it was the loss of the social, the bereavement of “one another.” The need for “one-anothering” had forced the hand of Christians to turn to a practice completely untested. Zoom worship was born—the genie is out, and will never go back in. But in the face of the now-acceptable force of contemporary narcissism, who cares?

Ireland: Looking East Christophe Gillissen.2010 If Ireland's relations with the Western world have been the object of numerous scientific publications, its links with the East have been neglected by research. The aim of this book is to redress that imbalance by proposing studies of various aspects of Ireland's interactions with the East. It is a multidisciplinary publication, dealing with some of the historical, political, religious, cultural, demographic and sociological connections between Ireland - both North and South - and the East. The chapters, which offer novel perspectives for the field of Irish studies, are organised in a chronological sequence, from the mid-19th century to the present. They focus on three main areas: the links between Ireland and the Asian continent, notably India, China and Turkey; its interactions with the Jewish people and the state of Israel; and its relations with Eastern European countries, in particular Poland and Lithuania. -- Back cover.

Le dialogue du sauveur Pierre Létourneau.2003 Lorsque vous abandonnez les oeuvres qui ne pourront vous suivre, alors vous vous reposerez, enseigne le Seigneur dans le Dialogue du Sauveur (141,9-12). Voila qui resume bien la doctrine centrale de ce dialogue de revelation entre Jesus, le revelateur descendu du Plerome, et ses disciples Marie, Matthieu et Jude. Document manifestement chretien, mais demeure inconnu jusqu'a sa decouverte en Haute Egypte en 1945, le Dialogue du Sauveur presente l'ultime enseignement que Jesus adressa a ses disciples avant de quitter ce monde. Si l'elu se connait lui-meme et trouve a l'interieur de lui-meme sa racine de lumiere en se debarrassant de la colere, de l'envie et des autres passions suscitees par les tenebres, il peut deja 'voir' le lieu du repos. Mais il n'atteindra a la grande vision eternelle du Dieu vivant qu'apres la dissolution, lorsque l'ame abandonnera le corps pour echapper aux archontes, eons et puissances celestes qui veulent la retenir captive en ce monde de pauvrete. Alors seulement celle-ci pourra-t-elle entrer dans la chambre nuptiale pour etre eternellement unie a son conjoint celeste. On cherchera en vain dans le Dialogue du Sauveur cet anticosmisme radical qui considere le monde materiel cree par un demiurge mauvais ou ignorant comme la source de tous les maux accablant l'humanite. Et ce n'est qu'avec un oeil averti qu'on peut y detecter le mythe de la chute d'une semence pneumatique issue du Plerome. Le document s'inscrit malgre tout dans le courant gnostique, affichant une doctrine valentinienne epuree qui temoigne d'une volonte de rapprochement avec la 'Grande Eglise'.

The Primacy of the Bishop of Rome and the Ecumenical Dialogue Adriano Garuti.2004

The mixed results of the ecumenical dialogue since the Second Vatican Council have made it clear that the primacy of the Bishop of Rome remains the single most serious obstacle on the path of ecumenism. In his landmark 1995 encyclical Ut unum sint, Pope John Paul II reiterated the constant teaching that the Catholic Church has preserved the ministry of the Successor of the Apostle Peter, the Bishop of Rome. He also invited leaders and theologians of other Christian communities to engage in a patient and fraternal dialogue on this subject...to find a way of exercising the primacy which, while in no way renouncing what is essential to its mission, is nonetheless open to a new situation. This book explores in depth the discussion of papal primacy in the Catholic-Orthodox, Catholic-Lutheran and Catholic Anglican dialogues, along with an appendix on the concept of Sister Churches. Each chapter describes how the primacy is viewed in the respective churches or ecclesial communities, then it analyzes the documents of the official ecumenical dialogue and realistically evaluates the results achieved thus far.

Walāyah in the Fāṭimid Ismā'īlī Tradition Elizabeth R. Alexandrin. 2017-07-19 Explores the relationship between revelation and reason in medieval Islamic intellectual history. In this original study, Elizabeth R. Alexandrin examines the complex relationships that can be inscribed between medieval Ismā'īlī thought as an intellectual tradition with a devotional practice of reliance on the imām, and as a politico-esoteric system that redefined governance during the Fāṭimid caliphate in the eleventh century. Alexandrin's work is a departure from recent Western scholarship that focuses on similarities among early Islamic traditions. She argues instead that, under the guidance of the Fāṭimid Ismā'īlī chief missionary al-Mu'ayyad fi al-Dīn al-Shīrāzī (d. 1078 CE), the concept of walāyah (divine guidance) became closely associated with religio-political authority, on the one hand, and the perfection of the individual human being, on the other. By signaling and affirming how the Fāṭimid caliph-imām's were the heirs of walāyah and by proposing new definitions of the seal of God's friends (khātīm al-awliyā' Allāh), al-Mu'ayyad broadened the contexts of making esoteric knowledge public and shifted the apocalyptic frameworks of Islamic messianism.
