Librivox.org is a dream come true for audiobook lovers. All the books here are absolutely free, which is good news for those of us who have had to pony up ridiculously high fees for substandard audiobooks. Librivox has many volunteers that work to release quality recordings of classic books, all free for anyone to download. If you've been looking for a great place to find free audio books, Librivox is a good place to start. Wikibooks is a useful resource if you're curious about a subject, but you couldn't reference it in academic work. It's also worth noting that although Wikibooks' editors are sharp-eyed, some less scrupulous contributors may plagiarize copyright-protected work by other authors. Some recipes, for example, appear to be paraphrased from well-known chefs. Each book can be read online or downloaded in a variety of file formats like MOBI, DJVU, EPUB, plain text, and PDF, but you can't go wrong using the Send to Kindle feature. How to Open the Free eBooks. If you're downloading a free ebook directly from Amazon for the Kindle, or Barnes & Noble for the Nook, these books will automatically be put on your e-reader or e-reader app wirelessly. Just log in to the same account used to purchase the book. Open Culture is best suited for students who are looking for eBooks related to their course. The site offers more than 800 free eBooks for students and it also features the classic fiction books by famous authors like, William Shakespear, Stefen Zwaig, etc. that gives them an edge on literature. Created by real editors, the category list is frequently updated. It would be nice if we're able to download free e-book and take it with us. That's why we've again crawled deep into the Internet to compile this list of 20 places to download free e-books for your use. Feedbooks is a massive collection of downloadable ebooks: fiction and non-fiction, public domain and copyrighted, free and paid. While over 1 million titles are available, only about half of them are free. The free Kindle books here can be borrowed for 14 days and then will be automatically returned to the owner at that time.
