Russian, Book 2: Russian Through Propaganda Mark Pettus.2018-03-13 This volume (Book 2) of Russian Through Propaganda is the continuation of Book 1, offering a second semester's worth of intensive Russian language learning. It presents all plural forms of noun and adjective case endings, introduces basic verbs of conveyance and basic prefixed forms, deals extensively with numbers and time expressions, and introduces comparative forms. It concludes with two special chapters dedicated to practical everyday conversation (for those heading to Russia), and an introduction to unadapted Soviet-era poetry and prose. Like Book 1, it is richly illustrated with Soviet propaganda posters whose slogans highlight each lesson's grammar. It is supplemented with a learner's Russian-English dictionary, an answer key, and useful grammar tables for reference. This new series of Russian language textbooks will continue with Books 3 and 4, entitled Russian Through Poems and Paintings.

93 Untranslatable Russian Words Natalia Gogolitsyna.2008 There is no better terrain in which to examine the differences between two cultures than language. Every language has concepts, ideas, words and idioms that are nearly impossible to translate into another language. This new book looks at nearly 100 such Russian words and offers paths to their understanding and translation by way of examples from literature and everyday life. A key to understanding another language, another culture, is figuring out what cannot be known, but only felt. In this compact and useful volume, difficult to translate words and concepts are introduced with dictionary definitions, then elucidated with citations from literature, speech and prose, helping the student of Russian comprehend the word/concept in context. Added bonus: Includes an extensive chart of Old Russian Measurements you may meet in literature -- from the common arshin, to the less known charka -- with modern conversions. An invaluable reference tool. - Publisher.

The Russian's World Genevra Gerhart,Eloise M. Boyle.2012 This book is an attempt at the impossible: to describe for non-Russians what Russian common knowledge might be. It is the Russian obvious - that is ob+via, in the road, in the way: what you might trip over if you ignore it or don't see it. It is the information one Russian assumes another has when they are talking together. It is the background against which words take on meaning. If one knew all of common knowledge, then all humor would be comprehensible. The book was written because the Russian equivalent for Thomas, [Doma] might share origin in language but certainly doesn't share place in society. It was written because in translation the obvious often isn't: and sometimes it's hard to answer when you don't know what your friend has in mind. The book was written for the traveler who might be happier or even healthier knowing what to expect; it was written for those in business who want to avoid pratfalls as much as they want to see possibilities; and it was written for those studying the language who are blessed with curiosity and (temporarily) tired of verb forms. the assumption is not that the readers know Russian, but that they do want to know about Russians and their language. (There are also a few hints on what to expect for Russians new to America.)--from back cover.

Russian Stories Gleb Struve.2012-05-23 Twelve tales by such masters as Chekhov, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, others. Excellent word-for-word English translations on facing pages, plus teaching and study aids, Russian/English vocabulary, biographical/critical introductions, more.

Best Russian Short Stories Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin, Et Al.2019-07-08 This book is a result of an effort made by us towards making a contribution to the preservation and repair of original classic literature. In an attempt to preserve, improve and recreate the original content, we have worked towards: 1. Type-setting & Reformatting: The complete work has been re-designed via professional layout, formatting and type-setting tools to re-create the same edition with rich typography, graphics, high quality images, and table elements, giving our readers the feel of holding a 'fresh and newly' reprinted and/or revised edition, as opposed to other scanned & printed (Optical Character Recognition - OCR) reproductions. 2. Correction of imperfections: As the work was re-created from the scratch, therefore, it was vetted to rectify certain conventional norms with regard to typographical mistakes, hyphenations, punctuations, blurred images, missing content/pages, and/or other related subject matters, upon our consideration. Every attempt was made to rectify the imperfections related to omitted constructs in the original edition via other references. However, a few of such imperfections which could not be rectified due to intentional\unintentional omission of content in the original edition, were inherited and preserved from the original work to maintain the authenticity and construct, relevant to the work. We believe that this work holds historical, cultural and/or intellectual importance in the literary works community, therefore despite the oddities, we accounted the work for print as a part of our continuing effort towards preservation of literary work and our contribution towards the development of the society as a whole, driven by our beliefs. We are grateful to our readers for putting their faith in us and accepting our imperfections with regard to preservation of the historical content. HAPPY READING!

To Sleep N.W.O.2021-02-12 Imagine your Dad was Cash. Where there's corruption is lying integrity and walk the line, got down, down, so down: face up too looking to the nearer heavens in the star- lit sky with the love found in worship, towards heaven. Overshadowing my silhouette as the sheet allows vision through, with meagre small candle-light, and not just over me, over anybody else in my world, sing my heart out; How is she going to sing without any heartbeat, they laugh; he kills and saves. All we are is just slaves living not to buy into his illusions. Ordinary as such.

Short Stories in Russian Brian James Baer.2017-08-01 A dual-language edition of Russian stories—many appearing in English for the first time This new volume of ten short stories, with parallel translations, offers students at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature without constantly having to refer to a dictionary. The stories—many of which appear here in English for the first time—are by well-established writers like Vladimir Sorokin, Ludmila Ulitskaya, Sergey Lukyanenko, and Ludmilla Petrushevskaya as well as emerging voices like Alexander Ilichevsky, Evgeny Grishkovets, and Julia Kissina. Drawn from the last two decades of the Soviet Union and the two decades following its collapse, they chart a period of dramatic social change, often using metaphors of the body, and represent a range of literary styles that highlight the dynamism of contemporary Russian fiction. Complete with notes, the stories make excellent reading in either language.

Russian, Book 3: Russian Through Poems and Paintings Mark Pettus.2018-10-24 This is Book 3 in a series of Russian language textbooks that began with Russian Through Propaganda (Books 1 and 2). This volume shifts its attention from the Soviet era to the Imperial era, illustrating its discussions of intermediate grammar with paintings depicting Russian history and culture. Classical poems by the likes of Pushkin and Lermontov provide examples of the grammar, which includes such topics as advanced aspect, prefixed verbs of motion, and deverbal forms - all of which are essential for reading real Russian literature. The book culminates with a reading selection that includes Pushkin's The Bronze Horseman, two short stories by Chekhov (Death of a Clerk and A Little Joke), and one by Tolstoy (Alyosha the Pot) - all of them extensively glossed. This series, which is geared toward ambitious students who wish to learn Russian culture along with the language, will continue with Book 4.

The Miracle of Christmas Night Adam Hudaib.2016-12-22 This Book in Russian Language Since the old time there has been a belief that on Christmas Eve Heavenly Angels come down to the Earth and they listen to people's prayers, then they fulfill the most unbelievable wishes. The young writer Christine has been waiting for a miracle and inspiration for more than a year, while enjoying the theater in the brightest neighborhood of London - Soho. The girl was searching herself but she could never expect that on Christmas Eve she would find something more - him, the secret sky-eyed stranger from her dreams. He entered her life quite silently, a strange guest visiting on December days. It could be a dream or it could be reality. Every night they came to each other's dreams through time and space, writing letters and trying to touch each other. But every time their fingers were within a millimeter from their skin, the dream cut abruptly, with both of them coming back to their own reality. Who is he - this sky-eyed stranger? A dream? Or a guest from some other space? Will Heavenly Angels hear Christine's prayers on Christmas Eve? Will the two paired particles be able to pass through the rabbit hole? Will the miracle of the Christmas night happen? The Angels of God are looking from the sky archly...
