

Can Your Pet Unblock For School

8 Class Pets + 1 Squirrel [divided By] 1 Dog Vivian Vande Velde.2012 He'll need a hand, of course. . . . and maybe a paw, a fin, and a wing, too. Can the classroom pets--including Sweetie the library rat, a snake named Angel, and the first graders' Green Eggs and Hamster--help Twitch get back to his cozy home in the trees? Each chapter is told in the voice of a different animal as the squirrel works his way through the school, visiting each classroom and trying to stay one step ahead of the principal's menacing dog, Cuddles. The different perspectives make this a perfect introduction to narrative point-of-view--and an extra-funny read-aloud.--Amazon.com.

The Pet Sitter Tana Reiff.2020-08-02 Pet sitting would be good work for you, Ginny's friend Eva tells her. Ginny really is cut out to be a pet sitter. After the death of her dog, Rocky, she can't bear the thought of getting another dog. But then Ginny takes care of Eva's dog for a week and realizes something important--she not only loved Rocky, she loves all animals. And animals love her. So she starts a pet-sitting business. Funny and not-so-funny things happen along the way. And she learns that loving animals is not always enough to make a business work.This high-interest, low-vocabulary novella is intended for adult basic education (ABE) and English as a Second Language (ESL) readers.

You Can't Text Your Pet Steven Doornbos.2015-10-19 Every day all over the world families leave their homes to go to their jobs, school or other activities that require them to leave their pets at home alone. And although we don't like having to do that it is something over which we have little if any control. Pets stay home alone for extended periods of time and without supervision. That can be the beginning of a disaster and one that unfortunately happens all too often. The family returns home and finds that something has been broken, chewed on, eaten or destroyed. Nobody is happy about the situation but in truth the pet doesn't have a clue why you're upset and is just happy to have you home. So what can be done about this dilemma that is played out each day? There are answers to this and we're going to explore some of them within the next few pages. Basically I can tell you that it isn't the pet's fault that things get destroyed while you're away. Okay, yes they are the perpetrator of the act but in reality they are animals and have a certain amount of anxiety while you're away. Even small children tend to act out when the parent isn't visible in the home and it is no different with your pet. What's worse is that there is no way for you, the pet owner, to communicate what is going on or why you leave the house each day. Indeed it would be nice if we could simply send a short text to our pets during the day and assure them that all is well and that we have not abandoned them. Perhaps we would even text them saying that we will return and maybe even bring with us a treat especially for them. But alas that is not possible so we are faced with either confining the pet to a particular area of the home or garage or simply pet proofing the home with the hope that everything will be as we left it when we return.

Teacher's Pets Dayle Ann Dodds.2006 As a growing menagerie takes over Miss Fry's classroom, students of all species fall head-over-tails for their ever-patient teacher in Dayle Ann Dodds's funny story, illustrated with lively flair by Marilyn Hafner.

Monday morning is sharing day in Miss Fry's class, and children may bring in a pet to share, just for the day. Week after week, a new and wonderful pet comes to visit - a crowing rooster, a crawly tarantula, a cricket that does somersaults - but somehow ends up staying for a very long time. Soon a host of classroom critters are mingling happily among the students, and even the parents are pleased with what they see. Isn't it great, they exclaim, that Miss Fry loves pets so? It's clear that the gentle Miss Fry is one teacher the kids and parents will never forget! But what will happen when the school year ends and it's time for all of her well-taught pets to say goodbye?

Brody the Reading Tutor Megan Bell.2013-04-01 Brody is a 5 year old Golden Retriever who is a Reading Tutor at a local elementary school once a week. Over the course of an hour, four or five children visit Brody and read aloud to him. He lies quietly on his blanket and listens to the stories without interrupting, correcting or judging. It's a treat for students to see Brody each week. They often ask for an extra minute to pet Brody, see his tricks and reward him with pets and hugs for his great job of listening. Brody has to navigate the busy school hallways without chasing a runaway ball or following noisy students out to recess. Brody's biggest challenge is to win over the apprehensive child that does not want to sit on his blanket. Brody succeeds through patience, love and companionship that only a dog can provide.
