Nigerian Baptist Convention Past Leaders in Pictures Adebayo Afolaranmi.2020-02-20 This is a compilation of the pictures of the past (and the two present) apex leaders of the Nigerian Baptist Convention - from S. G. Pinnock (the convener of the first annual gathering of NBC) and Mojola Agbeb (the first elected leader of NBC) to Olumide Kehinde (the current NBC Chairman) and Supo Ayokunle (the current NBC President) - and a brief description of each of them. This is a historical pictorial booklet of fine and insightful presentation, worthy of its place on the library. It is an enthralling and captivating compilation, which contributes significantly to our understanding of aspects of Nigerian Baptist history, through the lenses of its apex leadership, many of whom might be appropriately tagged among the heroes of the Baptist faith in the country. - S. Ademola Ajayi, PhD Professor of History, University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria.

Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe.2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti-development and a-political. Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective. Using the case-study method, this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating, describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio-political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria's Niger Delta region. Adopting approaches from practical theology, congregational studies, and anthropology of religion, the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region. His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions: • What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict? • What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria's political economy of oil and conflict? • How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and 'fundamentalist' Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a-political and anti-development? • What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria's political economy of oil look like? The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced, which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul-winning. Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality, it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio-political milieu. Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis. Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion, a theology of prayer, and an ethics of crude oil, with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria's political economy of oil. While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology, the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified.

Selected Devotional Messages Based on Hymns Adebayo Ola Afolaranmi.2020-08-24 Speak to one another with psalms, HYMNS, and spiritual songs, sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 5:19-20 NIV). In line with this injunction by the Apostle Paul, some men and women of God in history had composed many hymns that we are singing today. These hymns were not just composed for fun. There were some circumstances that made the original composers to pen each of the hymns. The hymns, undoubtedly, are full of inspiration and lessons to be learned by all and sundry. This book, Selected Devotional Messages based on Hymns written by Rev. Adebayo Ola Afolaranmi, is a God-given material to enhance our hymn singing, help us in reflecting on the texts and divine messages in our hymns as we also learn from the lives of the hymn writers to encourage our faith and walk in the Lord. As we come each time to these devotional messages, let us lift our hearts and voices in praises to the Lord of all people and countries. Let us join the host of believers throughout history as we express our praises and commitment to God through the hymns and their stories. Meet the hymn writers and discover how God's work in their lives has left this legacy of hymns for us to share. God bless us all as we worship daily with this treasury of hymns. (from the Foreword by Rev. Samuel Onimisi O. Auda, DMA, Dean, Faculty of Church Music, The Nigerian Baptist Theological Seminary, Ogbomoso, Nigeria)

Contemporary Dimensions in Nigerian Music Charles Aluede,Albert Oikelome.2021-01-04 From ancient to contemporary times, music in the area known as Nigeria has passed through different stages of transmutation. Primarily transmitted through oral means has in the last century received significant scholarly attention. Areas like folksong documentation, ethno-organological studies, popular music studies and art music have continued to feature in scholarly discourse. Societal dynamism allows room for scholarly reassessment and evaluation of aspects of Nigerian music; thus, reflecting change and continuity in the area. It is within this cusp that this book looks at contemporary trajectories in Nigerian music.

A Study and Critical Analysis of Orin Idaraya Choruses in the Yoruba Baptist Hymnal

(2000) of the Nigerian Baptist Convention Emmanuel Olusola Fasipe.2020 The purpose of the dissertation is to identify and critically analyze the ninety indigenous choruses titled Orin Idaraya in the Yoruba Baptist hymn book of the Nigerian Baptist Convention published in the year 2000. The study examines the choruses for their biblical, theological, and cultural meaning to ascertain their messages, evaluate their claims, and liturgical appropriateness. Before the advent of chorus songs, the song repertory used among Yoruba Baptist churches was characterized by congregational hymn singing and choral music. The inclusion of ninety indigenous choruses in the hymnal was a response to the craving of Yoruba worshipers for songs that would allow them to express their Christian faith in culturally appropriate ways. A comprehensive analysis of the lyrics of the Yoruba choruses in the hymnal is, therefore, essential to providing the church's leaders with a clear biblical perspective on the doctrines and cultural elements inherent in these songs before the songs are promoted for the use of the congregations. Chapter 1 provides an introduction to the study. In this section, the significance of congregational church hymn singing to the Yoruba Baptist churches of the Nigerian Baptist Convention was explored. Chapter 2 presents a brief discussion of the Yoruba people, their traditional culture, language, and religion. Chapter 3 provides an overview of the history of the Nigerian Baptist churches from British colonialism through the present. In the chapter, the rise of Yoruba hymnody in the church and the use of indigenous Yoruba indigenous Christian songs in worship were examined. Chapter 4 explores the history and organization of YBH 2000. In the chapter, a brief explanation of why the songs are referred to as Orin Idaraya was offered. Chapter 5 contains a critical analysis of the ninety choruses in the Orin Idaraya section. The analysis includes the identification of traditional and cultural elements employed in the song. The chapter concludes with a suggestion of possible liturgical usage of each of the songs. Chapter 6 presents a summary and interpretation of the analysis of the ninety Yoruba choruses, draws conclusions, and makes recommendations towards future editions of the Yoruba Baptist hymn book.

Hymns and Constructions of Race Erin Johnson-Williams, Philip Burnett.2024-02-07 Hymns and Constructions of Race: Mobility, Agency, De/Coloniality examines how the hymn, historically and today, has reinforced, negotiated, and resisted constructions of race. It brings together diverse perspectives from musicology, ethnomusicology, theology, anthropology, performance studies, history, and postcolonial scholarship to show how the hymn has perpetuated, generated, and challenged racial identities. The global range of contributors cover a variety of historical and geographical contexts, with case studies from China and Brazil to Suriname and South Africa. They explore the hymn as a product of imperialism and settler colonialism and as a vehicle for sonic oppression and/or resistance, within and beyond congregational settings. The volume contends that the lived tradition of hymn-singing, with its connections to centuries of global Christian mission, is a particularly apt lens for examining both local and global negotiations of race, power, and identity. It will be relevant for scholars interested in religion, music, race, and postcolonialism.
